The application for the inclusion of additional items on the agenda for the General Meeting is accompanied by a justification or a draft decision to be approved at the Extraordinary General Meeting date. The revised agenda is then published, as in the case of the previous agenda, at thirteen (13) days before the Extraordinary General Meeting date. Agenda, if the relevant application has reached the Board at least seven (7) days prior to the Extraordinary General Meeting date.

III. Following an application made by any Shareholder submitted to the Company at least five (5) full days before the Extraordinary General Meeting, the Board of Directors is then bound to make the requested specific information available with respect to Company affairs, to the extent that the requested information is relevant to the agenda items at the General Meeting. The Board of Directors may give a comprehensive reply to Shareholders' applications with the same content. Information disclosure liability does not exist, in the case that the relevant information is already available on the Company's webpage, particularly in the form of questions and answers. Furthermore, the Board of Directors may decline the provision of information for an adequate and substantial reason, mentioned in the minutes.

IV. Shareholders representing one fifth (1/10) of the paid up share capital may request the Board of Directors to provide information on the progress of corporate affairs and the information relevant to the Company's assets at the General Meeting. This request must be submitted to the Company at least five (5) full days before the General Meeting. The Board of Directors may decline to provide the requested information by adequately and substantially justifying such refusal in the minutes of the General Meeting.

Similar deadlines for the exercise of minority rights also apply in the case of Repeat General Meetings.

In all of the cases referred to above, requesting shareholders must prove their capacity as a shareholder and, with the exception of the case of the above paragraph III, the number of shares that they own during the exercise of such a right. Such proof can be an attestation from the organization where the securities are kept or verification of Shareholder status through direct electronic connection between the organization and the Company.
